

FOLLOW THE FAITHFUL GOD
CCR Covenant Service 2025

³¹“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

³²It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them,” declares the LORD.

³³“This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

³⁴No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, ‘Know the LORD,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the LORD. “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.””

(Jeremiah 31:31–34)

DISCUSS:

- 1. What does this passage tell you about the kind of relationship God wants with His people?

- 2. For those of us who feel like God will reject us because of something we have done wrong, how does this passage bring encouragement to you?

- 3. From what you understand of the ministry of Jesus and His sending of the Holy Spirit, how has God made the kind of relationship as described in Jeremiah 31:31-34 possible in our lives?

RESPOND:

- Are there areas in your life where you struggle to experience God's love and forgiveness?
- What steps can you take to deepen your relationship with God and your experience of His love and faithfulness this year?

Share and pray with one another, asking for God's help.
